

10th June, 2009

Dear Parents,

It is with much pleasure that I announce that Mr. Ray Paxton has been appointed to the position of Principal of Waverley College effective from the commencement of the 2010 school year. Mr. Paxton is currently the Principal of Mercy College, Chatswood.

Mr Paxton has a Master of Arts Degree, a Graduate Diploma in Religious Education, a Bachelor of Education and a Diploma of Teaching. Formerly Mr. Paxton has held senior leadership positions as Assistant Principal at Mercy College, Assistant Principal/Director of Religious Education at Loreto, Normanhurst and Secondary Religious Education Advisor for the Catholic Education Office in the Archdiocese of Sydney. He is married with three children, is an active member of his parish community and is an accomplished musician.

On behalf of all the members of the Edmund Rice Education Australia network, I warmly congratulate Mr. Paxton on this significant appointment and wish him well as he embarks upon the next exciting phase of his professional life.

Mr. Paxton and his family will be formally welcomed into the Waverley College Community later in 2009.

With best wishes,
